150th Legacy Fund Endowment Campaign March 23

Join us for our Annual Day of Giving

On March 23, 1869, eight women gathered at Tremont Methodist Episcopal Church in Boston, Massachusetts, and organized the Women's Foreign Missionary Society, what would become United Methodist Women. Those women raised money to send a doctor, Clara Swain, and a teacher, Isabella Thoburn, to India as missionaries to serve the women of that nation.

To celebrate the dedication and foresight of our foremothers, every March 23 has become A Day of Giving to the Legacy Fund Endowment Campaign.

Annual Spring Luncheon April 14 at Noon At The Red Rooster Restaurant Program: "Haiti"

Jean Freeman will tell us about her
UMVIM (United Methodist Volunteer In Mission) trip to Haiti

Wear your Haiti beads!
Bring anything you have from Haiti to share.

We will order from the menu.
A sign up sheet is available.

Please let us know if you plan to attend and how many will be in your party so we can give the restaurant an approximate number.
